

SUSSEX FUNERAL SERVICES

Disclosure of Interests

The Competition and Markets Authority requires every funeral director to publish a statement of certain business interests and payments, so that families can see whether anything might influence the advice they are given. This is ours.

Sussex Funeral Services Ltd has no interests or payments to disclose under the CMA Funerals Market Investigation Order 2021.

Who Owns Sussex Funeral Services

Sussex Funeral Services Ltd is a genuinely independent, family run funeral director. It is owned and managed by Philip and Sallie Evans and is not part of any group or chain. The company is registered in England and Wales, company number 07202165, at 185 Portland Road, Hove, East Sussex, BN3 5QJ.

Crematorium and Cemetery Interests

We do not own, and we hold no interest in, any crematorium or cemetery. The crematoria and cemeteries we work with are operated independently of us, and their fees are passed on to you as they charge them.

Price Comparison Websites

We hold no material business or financial interest in any funeral price comparison website.

Payments to Third Parties

We make no registrable payments to any hospital, hospice, care home, palliative care service, local authority, charity, religious institution or other third party in return for the referral or recommendation of families to us.

Keeping This Up to Date

This statement is correct as at September 2026. If anything changes, we will update it here and at our premises at 185 Portland Road, Hove.
